WELCOME

Destiny's Way Foundation is pleased to announce the 6th Annual Ottawa New Year's Eve Charity Ball, on December 31, 2021. Our commitment is to donate 100% of all proceeds, to aid organizations that support those with autism and special needs.

YOUR EVENING

Virtual Silent Auction

Bid on fabulous experiences, memorabilia, fine jewellery, health & wellness items, shopping sprees and much more.

Live Entertainment

The Ottawa New Year's Eve Charity Ball™ 2021 - 2022 is honoured by the live stream performance of the Steve Berndt Quartet. Steve Berndt is the 2018 Gold Winner of the International Independent Film Awards for best original song "Blue Skies on Mars".

OUR BENEFICIARY

Journey House incorporates a supported independent living model, within a residential community for people with autism and developmental disabilities. The residents are encouraged to become connected with their community through a range of innovative daily activities and programs that enhance a sense of belonging and personal identity. Your financial support will ensure the continued success of these desperately needed programs.

In Ontario, there is currently a waiting list of over 18,000 individuals with autism and special needs, seeking housing and assisted living options.

This year's goal is to increase community awareness and support this extraordinary organization, by raising $100,000 towards the building of a new home.

Journey House
live and learn together

"Surpassed my expectations completely! A perfect evening with sensational music and high spirits" – Heather J.

"The Ottawa New Year's Eve Charity Ball was the highlight of our holiday season" – Wendy M.
